

Ilan Smith

Entertainer and illusionist, master of intrigue and wonder

Since the age of 16 he has been entertaining corporates and wowing audiences around the country. Having studied a BCom Degree in Economics & Marketing, he made his way through university with a pack of cards, and a subscription of the latest magic magazine.

Mentored by two of South Africa's magical greats, George Moss and Graham Kirk. Constantly exploring the intricacies of global entertainment and infusing his shows with the best workable material of international standard out there. He has made it his duty to travel internationally and surround himself with the world's best and most creative minds from the world of magic and corporate training. He specializes in full evening shows, MC work in a uniquely magical way as well key note addresses for the corporate market.