

Piet Nel

Project Director: Tax

Piet was previously a senior lecturer at the University of Pretoria and has had extensive experience in lecturing and advising on taxation issues. He has experience in writing and reviewing technical learning material (both lecture and case study based) as well as in facilitating technical learning seminars to auditors and accountants. He is currently employed in the Tax Division at SAICA as a Project Director.