

Toni Enderli

Property pioneer and business leader

Property pioneer and business leader with a record of unprecedented financial performance in a world first Cloud based estate agency, providing dynamic and world class leadership, skilled negotiating and business development success, tech savvy and social media strategies combined expert qualifications and performance with motivational revolutionary tactics for peak performance.

Toni has learnt from the best. Having taken the reigns of the family business after more than 20 years in the industry, Toni has cemented his reputation as an industry thought leader and true innovator of Real Estate excellence in South Africa. By harnessing a passion for technology and real estate, Toni has spearheaded incredible and dynamic real estate teams to bring you a world first, world class Cloud Based Estate agency while making a difference in he's world community with he's passion in extreme open water swimming.